

1. Imagine yourself writing your own biography. What would people need to know about the forces, events and people that shaped your life?

2. What aspects of Jesus life do you admire?

3. Jesus' life was shaped by three dimensions: relationship with His Father, with His disciples and with the hurting world around him (read Luke 6:13-16). Which one of the three dimensions do you need more of in your life right now? Explain.

4. What are some of your expectations of the church?

Read Matthew 28:16-20

5. What is the church supposed to do? Describe the main task of the church.

6. How can you contribute to this task?

7. What do you sense Jesus is telling you?

8. What do you think God might want you to do?