

Are we who we say we are?

Isaiah 43:14-19

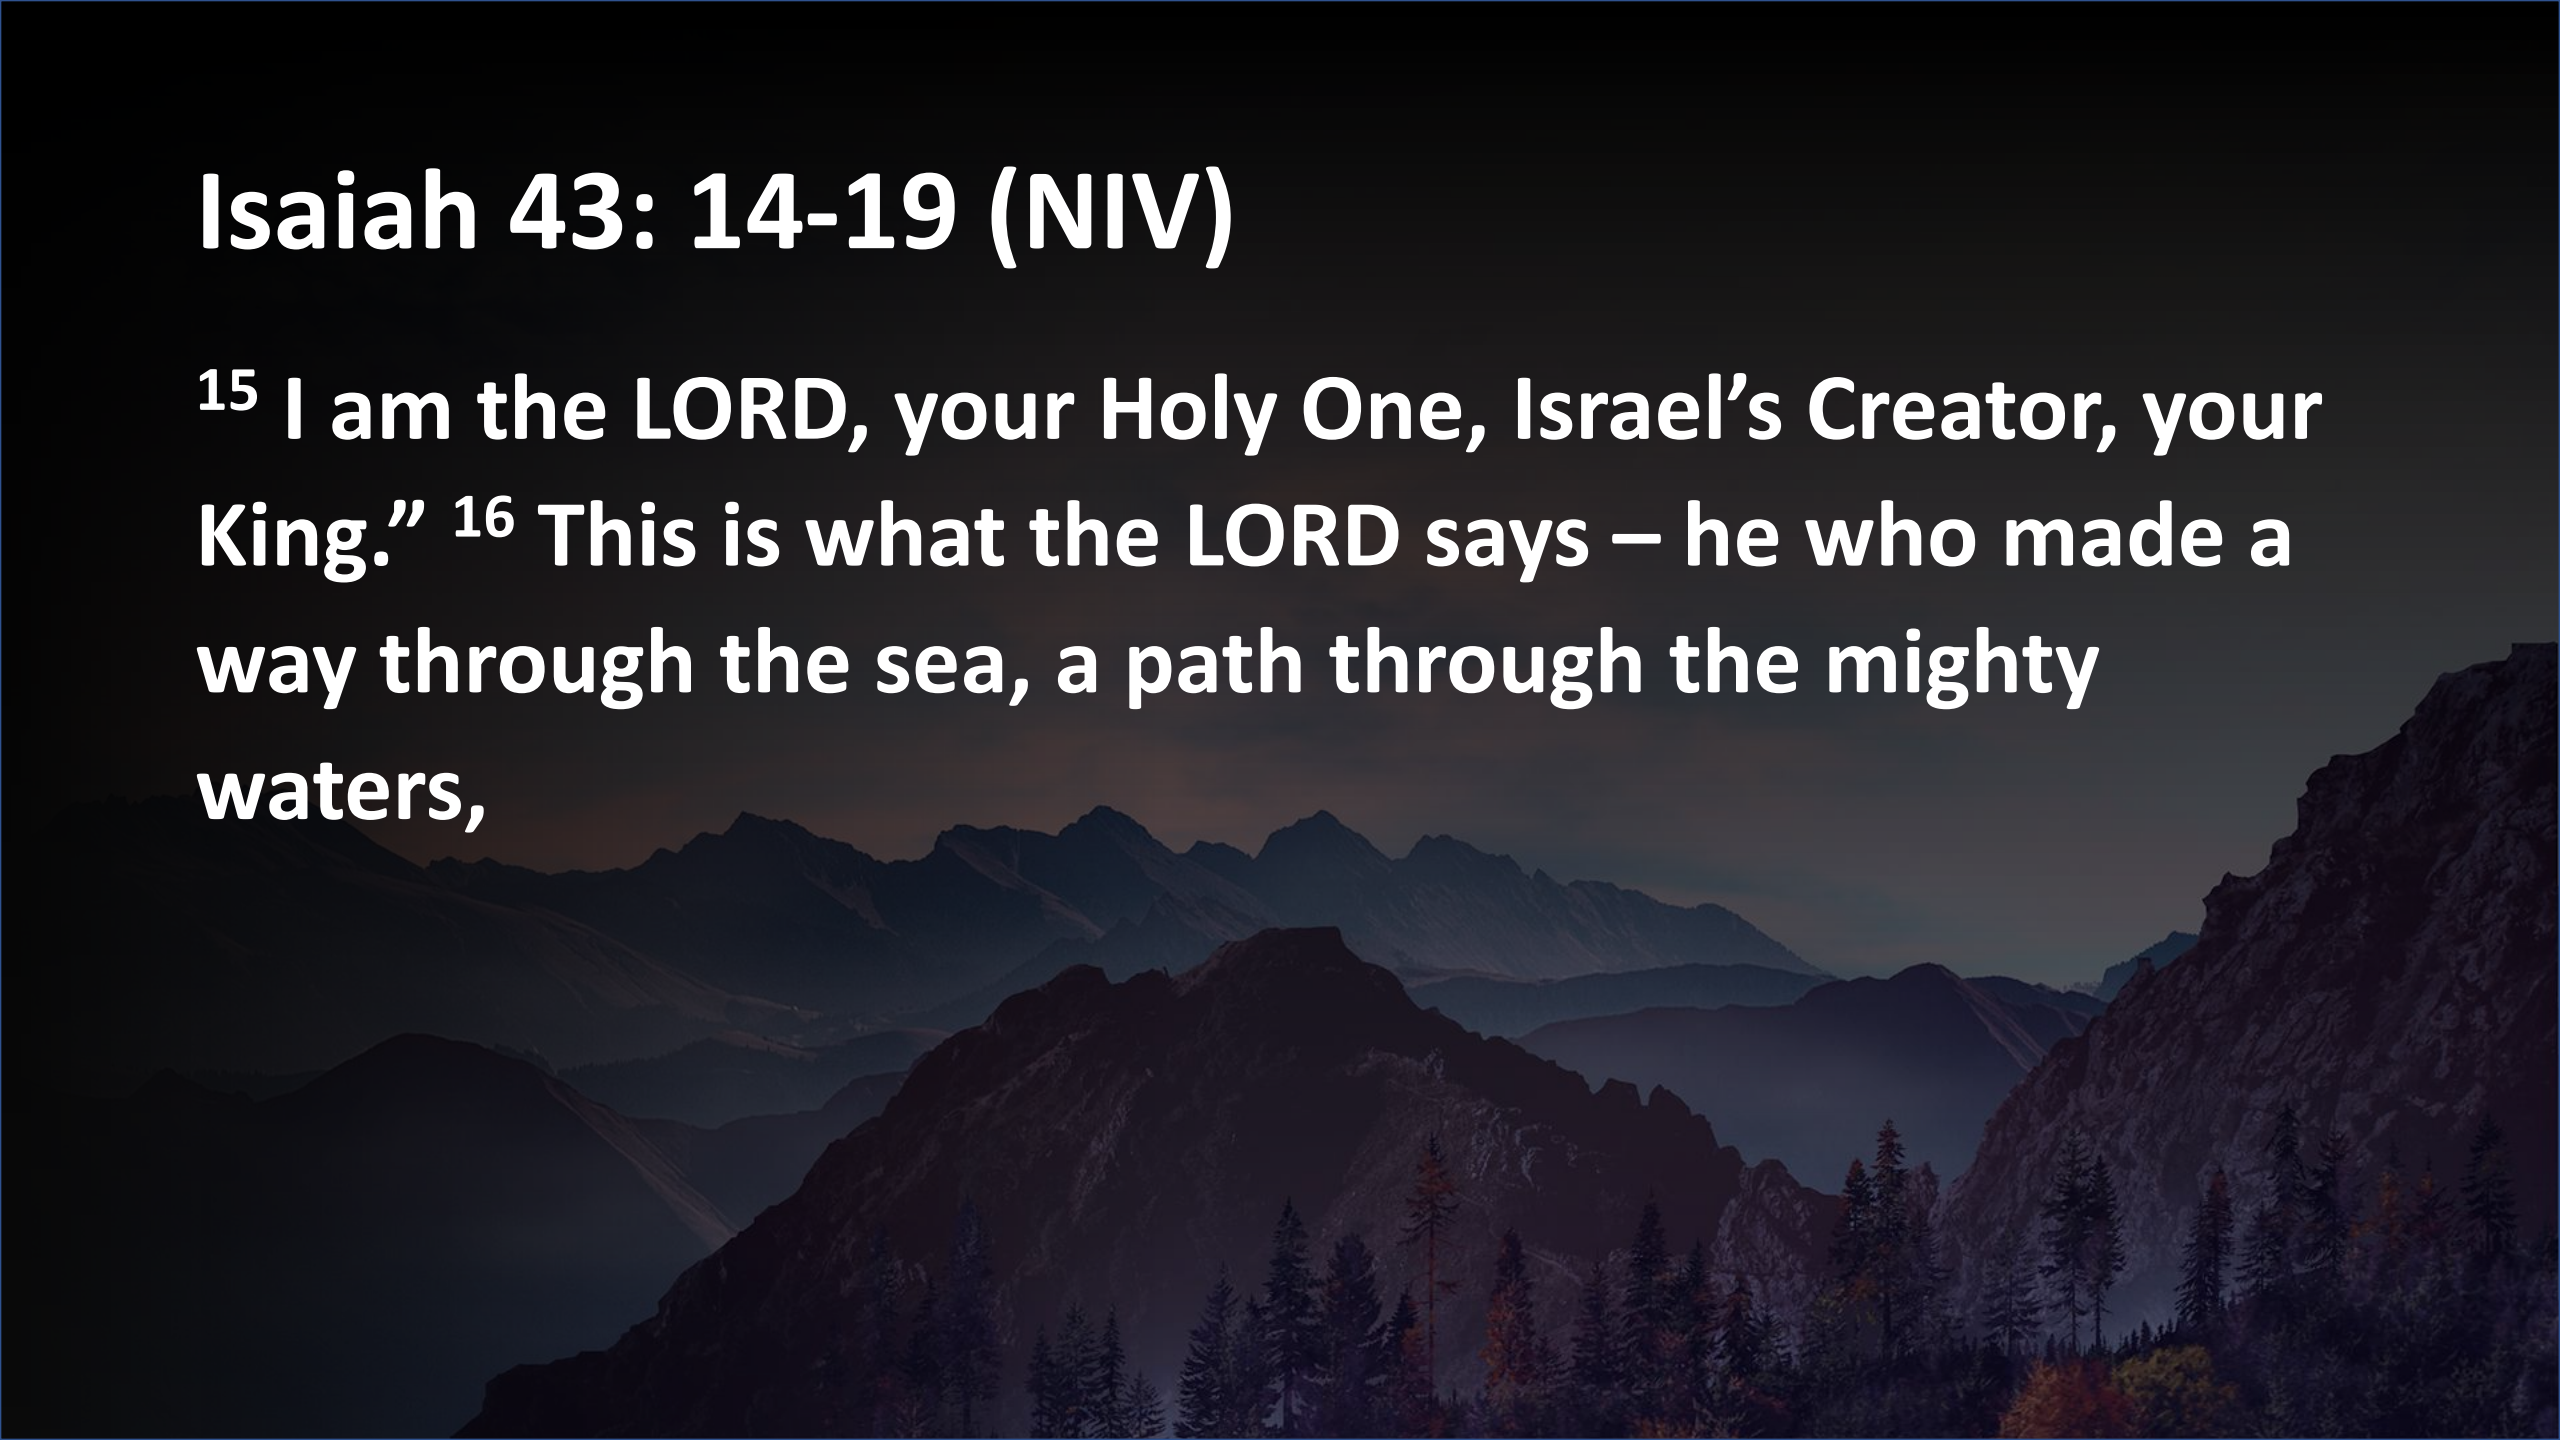

Isaiah 43: 14-19 (NIV)

¹⁴ This is what the LORD says – your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: “For your sake I will send to Babylon and bring down as fugitives all the Babylonians, in the ships in which they took pride.

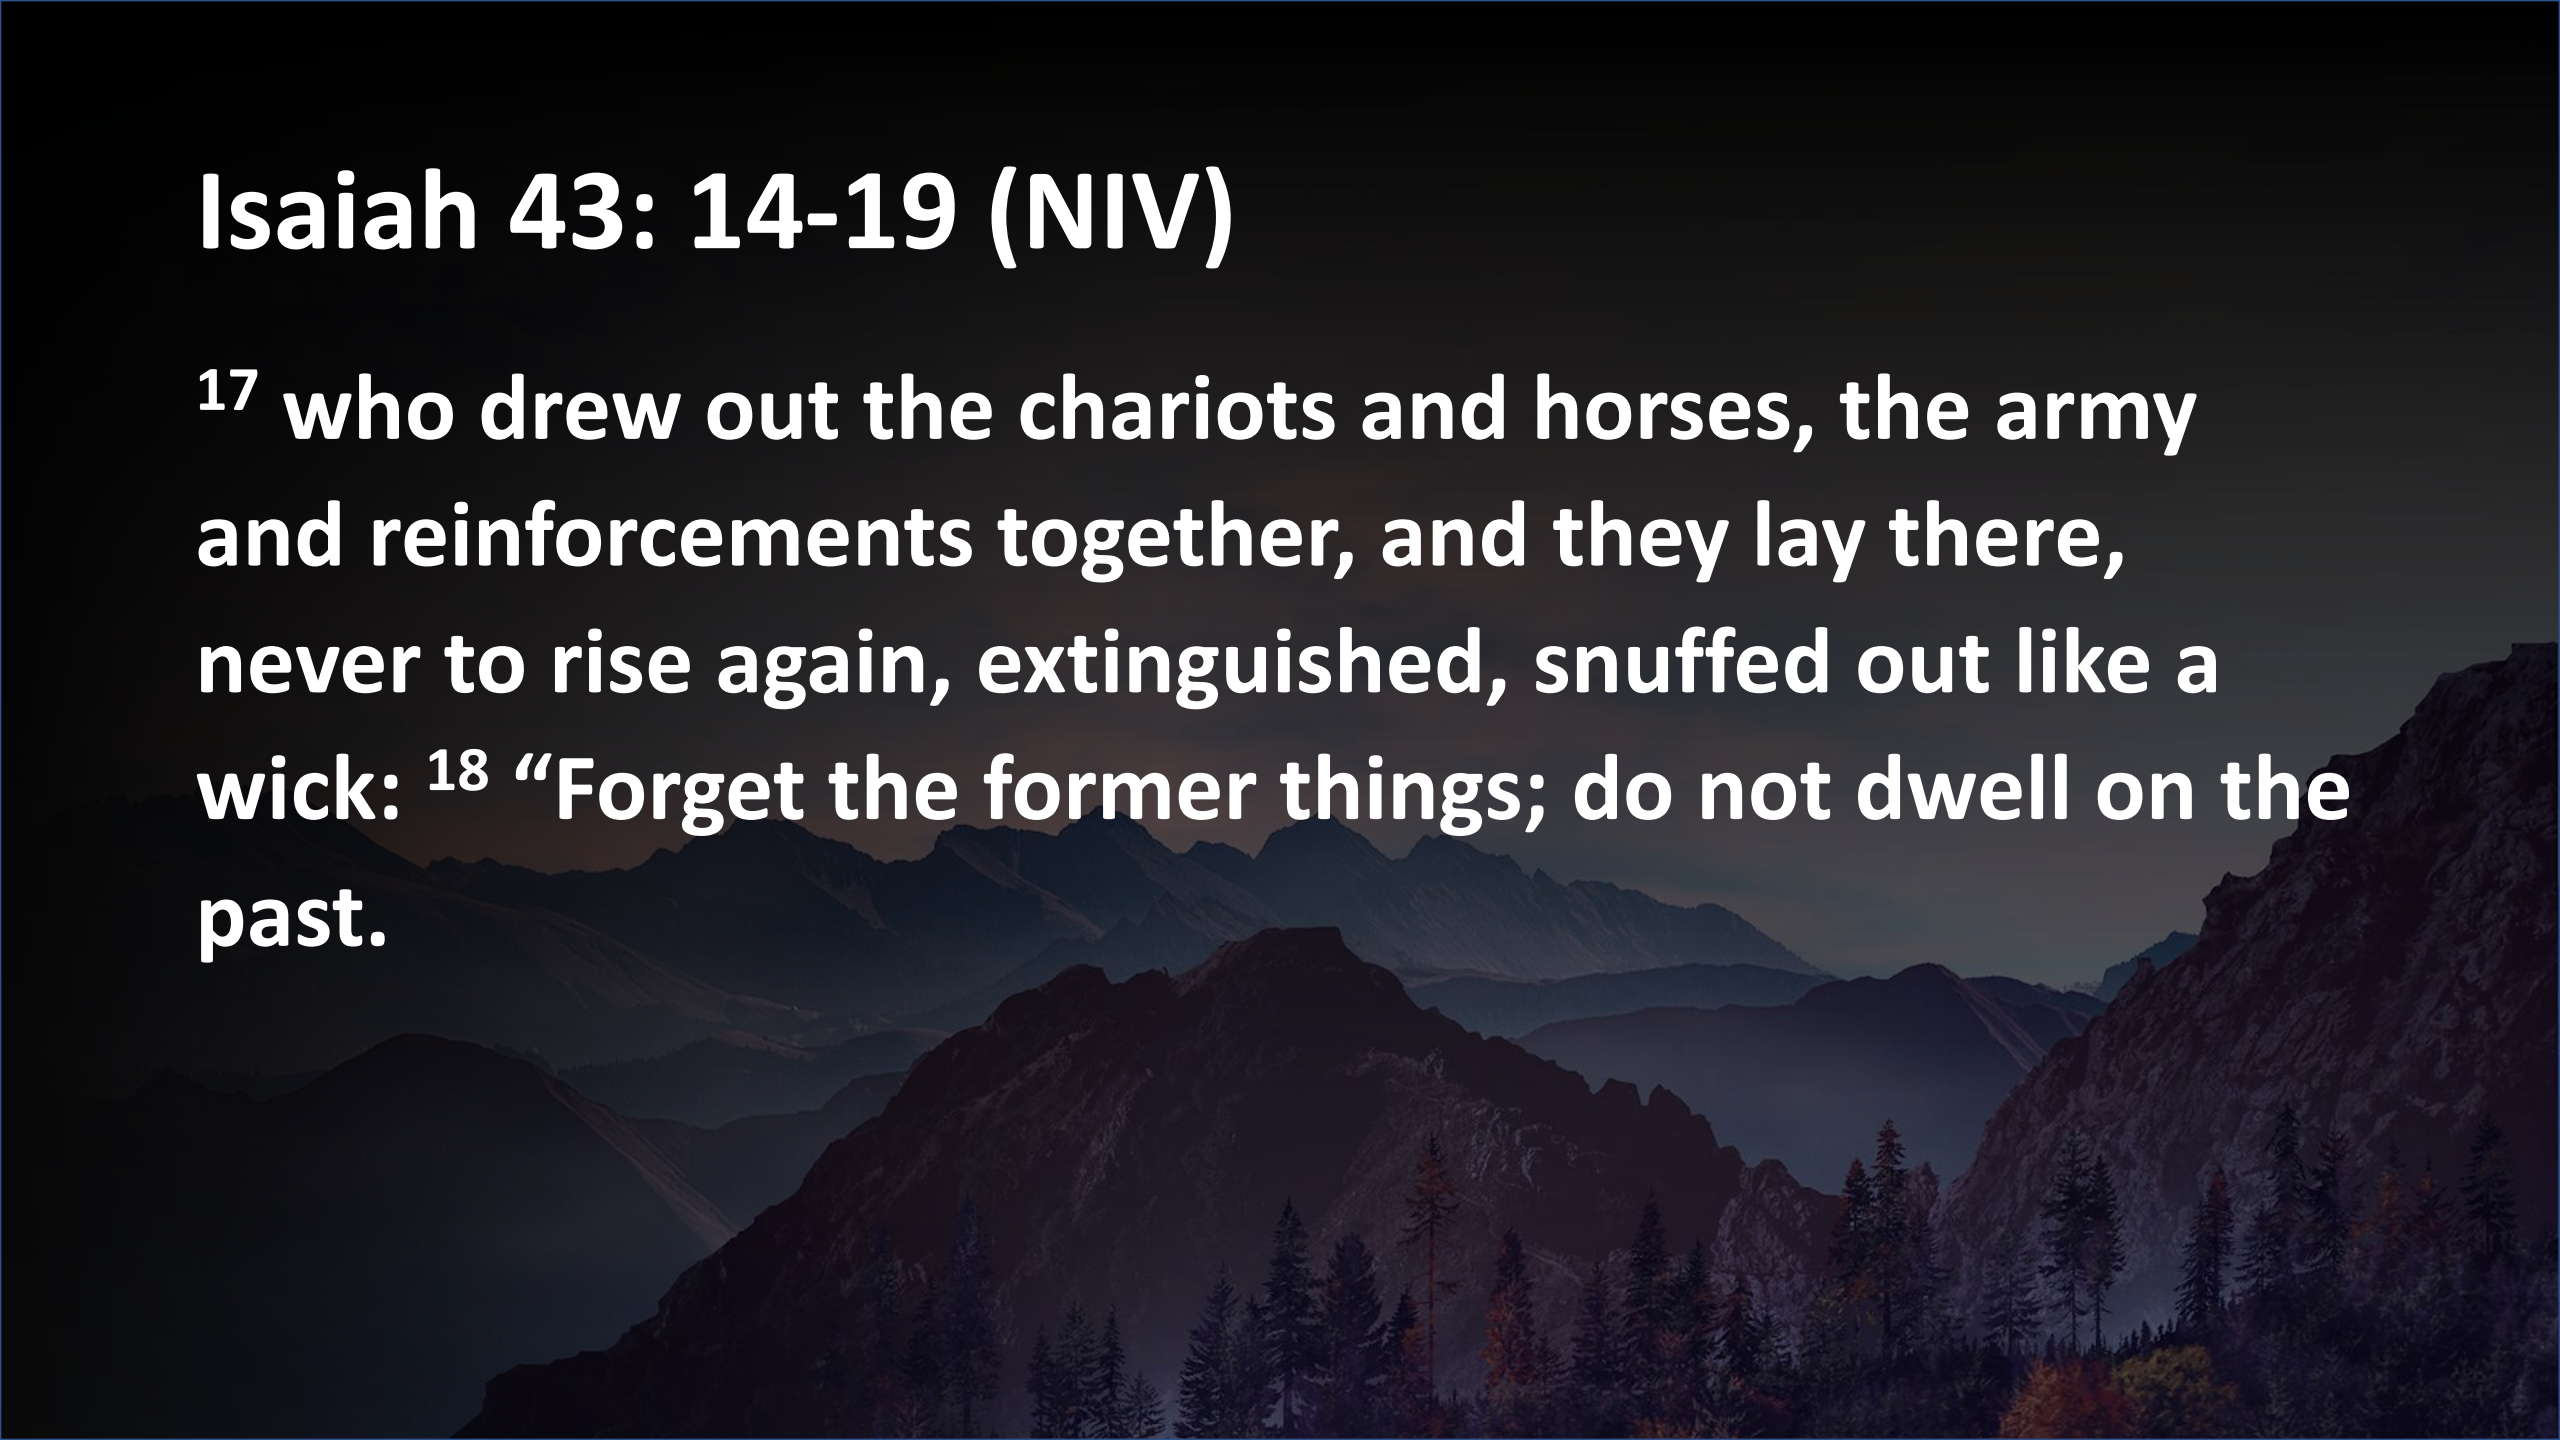

Isaiah 43: 14-19 (NIV)

¹⁵ I am the LORD, your Holy One, Israel's Creator, your King.” ¹⁶ This is what the LORD says – he who made a way through the sea, a path through the mighty waters,

Isaiah 43: 14-19 (NIV)

¹⁷ who drew out the chariots and horses, the army and reinforcements together, and they lay there, never to rise again, extinguished, snuffed out like a wick: ¹⁸ “Forget the former things; do not dwell on the past.

The background of the slide is a dark, atmospheric photograph of a mountain range. In the foreground, there are dark, silhouetted evergreen trees. Behind them, several layers of mountain ridges are visible, receding into the distance. The sky is a deep, dark blue-grey, suggesting twilight or dawn. The overall mood is somber and majestic.

Isaiah 43: 14-19 (NIV)

¹⁹ See, I am doing a new thing! Now it springs up; do you not perceive it? I am making a way in the wilderness and streams in the wasteland.
